Editorial Review

Review

"The Chief Complaint is simply indispensable, carry it with me every shift. Excellent algorithms, concise, practical, clinically relevant explanations citing the current best-evidence for management decisions; without doubt Chief Complaint it is THE pocket Emergency Medicine reference to have with you at the bedside."

-Manuel Montano, MD, PGY-3, LAC+USC EM Residency

"The book is really top notch. I really like how it organizes complaints in a flow pattern type way. This has allowed me to quickly adjust my decision making and makes it actually useful when I feel super pressured at work. The further detail located later has been helpful to one, get some good initial learning in and two, look to the resources cited for more in depth discussion."

-David Benaron, UCSD Resident

"Chief complaint is AWESOME...I think every single intern in the country should have one of these...SO COOL!"

-James Grieme, UCSD Resident

"The aptly named Chief Complaint is simply excellent. I really like the way it is laid out by cc and it's concise enough to be useful on a regular basis. I take it with me to every shift and would highly recommend it to anyone looking for a streamlined, functional, real-time guide for working up patients in the ED"

-Nick Aldridge, UCSD Resident

"Chris Feier's book is really something totally new in the medical education world. This pocket sized book does something many have tried to do but few have achieved, which is to create an orienteering guide to the med-ed landscape while launching your thought processes AT THE BEDSIDE when confronted with a new undifferentiated and undiagnosed patient."

-William "Billy" Mallon MD, Foreword

About the Author

Chris C. Feier M.D., Pharm.D. is currently an Assistant Professor of Clinical Emergency Medicine at the Keck School of Medicine at LAC+USC Medical Center. He received his PharmD at the USC School of Pharmacy and his MD from the Feinberg School of Medicine at Northwestern. He then went on to train with some of the best emergency medicine physicians in the world at the prestigious LA County + USC emergency medicine program, which is also one of the largest and oldest emergency medicine programs in the country. He started writing the "USC Survival Guide" while in residency for himself and other residents. It has since gained in popularity and for the first time is available publicly as "The Chief Complaint."
