The Charlotte Chronicles: A Novel (Jackson Boys Book 1) By Jen Frederick

Charlotte Randolph was only fifteen when she fell in love with her best friend's gorgeous older brother—but she wasn't foolish enough to hope he could ever love her back. Nate Jackson always viewed her as a pesky kid...until the day she got sick. The one bright spot during her illness? He realized she was all grown up. But just when she allows herself to believe that dreams can come true, Nate disappears from her life, taking her heart with him.

Nate knows he lost more than his best friend when he deserted Charlotte to enlist in the Navy. He thought he was doing the right thing, sparing the girl he loves from the shame and humiliation of his actions. Nine years later, it's time to right his wrongs. He returns home determined to win back his first love...only to find that Charlotte's moved on without him.

But if there's one thing that being a Navy SEAL has taught Nate? Never give up, even when all hope seems lost. And Nate's never going to give up on Charlotte. Ever.
