A Night to Remember by Patricia Pellicane By Patricia Pellicane

Morgan and her sister are out on the town, celebrating. Morgan has passed the bar exam and tomorrow will start a new job. They stop at an after hours place, and though Morgan is reluctant, she temporarily allows her controlling sister to lead the way. They'll only stay a few minutes.

Greg leaves the private card game in a room behind the bar. Once his eyes adjusted to the club's far dimmer light, they fix upon Morgan. Gazes meet and lock. He asks her to dance. The magnetism between Morgan and Greg is instant, the need to touch and be touched more than either can resist. There's no way she can refuse.

Morgan doesn't know this man and for the first time in her life, it doesn't matter. The hunger between them is intensified as together they watch an X rated show. Soon both give into the aching need, and between them discover A Night to Remember.
