About the Author

Elizabeth Berberich & Marsha Connellan Not too long ago we found ourselves in the wonderful yet confusing time of planning a wedding appropriate for our age and family circumstances. But we found all of our personal and business experiences did not prepare us for the decisions we had to make as a bride getting Married Later in Life. It was at this time we decided to write an informative guide for today's modern women. In the process, it became apparent that getting married at our age had more challenges than just planning a wedding, because there are other questions involved when getting Married Later in Life that may not be an issue for younger brides. Since we started, a growing number of Internet dating sites have become available and more and more couples over 40 are getting married through this connection. Therefore, we designed our book to be an informative, interactive wedding guide full of information and ideas that are helpful for both the bride and groom as they plan for one of the most important days of their lives.
