How Stupidity Saved My Life By Okechukwu Ofili

How Stupidity Saved My Life follows Ofili's academic struggles under a rigid educational system. He was written off by many friends and branded as a failure by numerous instructors. But through his struggles, Ofili discovered that his academic struggles were simply caused by a misunderstanding of his learning style. And by believing in himself and harnessing his unique learning style Ofili was able to succeed in High school and ultimately in College where he graduated as top 5 most outstanding engineering students in his entire class. Ofili's incredible journey is a constant reminder of what can be achieved when individuals unleash and maximize their hidden and unique talents. If you have ever been written off by teachers, friends and family then this book is a must read for you.
