Her touch uncovers secrets. His secrets might be more than she can handle.

Art appraiser Adeline “Addie” Montgomery craves a normal life. But because of her gift, she’ll never know what normal means. She can touch any object and know its owner’s secrets. It comes in handy in her line of work, but it frequently wrecks her personal life. Addie one day hopes to use her ability to solve the disappearance of her father and grandfather, but her strange dreams of a lover from a past life seem to keep getting in the way...

The mysterious Blake Greenwood has an aura of danger that pulls Addie right in. As a client of Addie’s firm, he seems to have more secrets than paintings. She tries to steer clear, but the connection between them feels older than time itself.

Addie wants to take a chance on love, but will letting her guard down show her a life she never thought possible or send everything crashing down?

The Fine Art of Deception is the first book in a series of paranormal romance mysteries. If you like nail-biting suspense, captivating love stories, and a touch of time travel, then you’ll love Alyssa Richards’ compelling paranormal series.
