Pull Me Under By Zarah Detand

As the first British footballer to come out at the prime of his career, it helps that Ben Jimmer is in a long-term, committed relationship with university student Henry Brown. Even if that relationship is fake.

Or: A cheerfully clichéd tale of romance, tattoos, football, and friendship (both with and without benefits). Also, tea. And stupidly complicated feelings, of course. Let's not forget about those.

Editorial Review

About the Author

Supposedly an adult. Overly fond of coffee, frogs, and people in love with other people. Should be way more responsible and much better at remembering to carry an umbrella, but usually forgets to care. 'nuff said.
